

Colin Jarvis and Neil Hulme Photography

Venice Photography Workshop

9th to 15th November 2018

The city of Venice is a photographers paradise. It lends itself to all forms of photography, street, architecture, candid, abstract, textures, but particularly Black and White, and especially Long Exposure photography, a style of photography that Neil and I are both skilled in and passionate about.

Neil and I have visited Venice on a number of occasions, we are both visiting again in November this year to ensure that you will get the most from the workshop in terms of locations and viewpoints. This workshop will give you a fantastic opportunity to explore Venice outside of the holiday season, it will be quieter, there may be mist and of course St. Marks Square might be flooded (a photographer's dream!). The workshop is limited to 8 clients which gives a ratio of 4 clients per workshop leader. Bring your laptop as there will be opportunity to post process your images with the help of Neil and myself.

Neil and I will be running this 6 night, 5 full day workshop to the stunning city of Venice between the dates of Friday 9th November to Thursday 15th November 2018. The cost will be £1200 and we will be staying in a centrally located, quality hotel on a B&B basis. There will be no single room supplement and non photography partners are welcome to attend at the reduced rate of £200. The price does not include flights and you will be responsible for booking your own flight and transfer from the airport along with travel insurance. We plan to rendezvous at 6pm on the Friday so please book flights accordingly.

Further details along with booking terms and conditions can be found by visiting:
